MT. VERNON.

A larger crowd than usual is in attendance at circuit court.

Circuit court convened here today Monday, Judge Morrow presiding.

The kiln at White Rock has proved to be defective. New ones will be built.

The closing exercises of the College Institute will take place during the week.

Buster & Co. have suspended operations in lime business at White Rock until a new kiln is made.

Since Rockcastle's roads have been made so much better the vehicle trade has greatly increased.

A new roof is being put on the residence of Mrs. Nancy Proctor to replace the one put there in 1864.

A New Orleans party is inspecting the Pine Hill mines, with a view to purchasing, and erecting coke ovens.

Smith Ping left headforemost into Mrs. Proctor's well Sunday morning. He climbed out by the well bucket rope and suffered but little inconvenience from the mishap.

Among the decorations at Lancaster G. A. R. meet the largest flag displayed was that hung over the street by the independent telephone people in front of their exchange.

P. H. Shatts, who moved to this county, from Ohio, some years since, died of paralysis Thursday, aged about 65. He was a highly respected citizen and a successful farmer.

E. D. Hansel, of this county, a U. S. storekeeper in Anderson county, who suffered a stroke of paralysis a month since, suffered another slight stroke, but is able to attend to his duties.

In a recent trip over the pikes leading out of Lancaster we found places that reminded us of some of our rough mountain roads. Some mighty poor judgment has been used in the repair of these pikes.

James McGuire, known by everyone for many years past as "Uncle Jimmy," died at his home on Clear creek last week in his 100th year. He was a remarkable man and had but little sickness during his long and eventful career.

On Monday afternoon when the decision of the supreme court was announced here, the roosters all over town kept up a constant crowing for an hour. Minor Fish, Hugh Miller, the writer and others noticed it. Of course the crowing had no connection with the decision, but it was a peculiar coincidence.

R. L. and Samuel Brown have returned from Nashville, where they have been attending law school. Sam'l. McClure, "Old Cull," is of the sick list. Mrs. A. B. Cromer has joined her husband at Ash Grove, Mo., whence he had gone recently. Our people were glad to welcome your business manager on the streets here yesterday. Dr. E. J. Brown, of your place, was here Monday. J. Bickoff, the junk man of your town, was in "our midst" first of week. Dr. Thomas, who was so low at Pine Hill, has recovered.

LIVINGSTON.

Calloway's new hall adds considerably to the looks of Main Street. There was a big hop there Thursday night, which was largely attended.

Misses Mary McKenna and Ethel Mudd returned Tuesday from Richmond. Messrs. Charles Scott and Frank Holtzclaw, of Goshen neighborhood, were here visiting Robert and Will Burns. Miss Lida Cook is visiting at Gump-Sulphur. Mrs. Bryant is on the sick list. Mesdames B. N. Roller and Satterfield were in Lebanon Friday attending a fish fry. Mesdames Monk and Jo Oliver are visiting at Brothead. Mrs. Jude Thompson, of Lebanon Junction, has been on a visit to her mother of this place. Mr. and Mrs. Lou Gray are in Lancaster. Mr. George Griffith has moved his family back to this place from Altamont. Their many friends welcome them back. Miss Jessie Bogart, who has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. H. W. Rice, will leave for her home in Cincinnati Tuesday. B. N. Roller was in Louisville Friday attending a republican convention. Mrs. K. C. Wade's school closed Friday. Mr. Jacob Sambrook and wife are in Cincinnati. Joe O'Donnell is visiting his father-in-law, Mr. Ratnes.

ROBEED THE GRAVE.

A startling incident of which John Oliver, of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "It was a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite, no sleep, no rest, no food, no drink. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately a friend advised trying 'Electric Bitters' to my great joy and surprise, the medicine made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and now a well man. I know they saved my life and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50c, guaranteed at Penny's Drug Store.

HOW'S THIS?

Last winter during an epidemic of whooping cough my children contracted this disease, having severe coughing spells.
